What is the Climate Justice Household Program?

- Tools and resources to take steps towards climate justice, reduce your carbon footprint and build community.
- Climate justice begins at home with tools to look closely at your carbon footprint, energy policy advocacy, relationship building.
- The goal is to make a plan and build skills to follow it.

PRACTICAL ACTION

practical personal solutions, such as energy efficiency, solar

SYSTEMIC CHANGE

supporting strong energy justice policies locally and statewide

RELATIONAL / SPIRITUAL

building relationships to increase the power of the movement

What is Climate Justice?

- A growing global movement to address the climate crisis with leadership from youth and frontline communities.
- People experiencing devastation of climate crisis and pollution are often least responsible with fewest resources for adaptation.
