Maundy Thursday

March 28, 2024 | 7:30 PM

"Do this in Remembrance of Me"

Maundy Thursday is about celebrating Holy Communion and remembering the first night that Jesus gave the church the Lord's Supper in the upper room. Just like the Nativity stories have special meaning on Christmas Eve, communion has special meaning on Maundy Thursday. When we participate in the sacrament on this night, we remember that we belong to God.

Communion on this special night can be very meaningful for children and their families.

It is a chance for all of God's people to hear the stories of the most important days of the year and to celebrate the sacrament that was introduced by Jesus for the first time.

Stories are important on this night. The key story is the bread and cup of the Last Supper. But the story of washing the disciples' feet and the Passover story are also part of the night. And all the stories told on Maundy Thursday connect to the Good Friday stories.

love for our world.

should love one another."

The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide! When other helpers fail and comforts flee, help of the helpless, O abide with me. Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day; earth's joys grow dim; its glories pass away; change and decay in all around I see. O thou who changest not, abide with me.

Pastor: In worship tonight, we testify to God's love shown perfectly in Christ.

Pastor: In the upper room, Jesus said, "I give you a new commandment, that you

People: We recommit ourselves to love one another as a community of faith.

Pastor: Even as we see the troubles of the world that rejected you, we hold fast to your promise of love.

People: You, O Lord, are our rock and our redeemer.

Pastor: Let us remember that great love and blessed assurance even and especially this night.

AFFIRMATION OF UNITY #836 (v. 3 & 4)

I need thy presence every passing hour; what but thy grace can foil the tempter's power? Who, like thyself, my guide and stay can be? Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless; ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if thou abide with me.

The Invitation to the Table

The Lord's Prayer

t Hymn #507

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Come to the Table of Grace

Come to the table of grace. Come to the table of grace.
This is God's table; it's not yours or mine.

Come to the table of grace.

Come to the table of peace...

Come to the table of love...

Come to the table of hope...
Come to the table of joy...

† Please rise in body or spirit.

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

God of abundance, with the bread of life and the cup of salvation, you have united us with your Son, making us one with all your people. We pray that the light of Christ we found at the table will dawn on our souls and remove all bitterness. Help our lives reflect Christ's love. Let his love show in our deeds, let his peace shine in our words, and let his healing come to all who are in need tonight. Amen.

Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;

shine through the gloom and point me to the skies. Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee; in life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

THE SERVICE OF TENEBRAE

† Hymn #836

Special Music

Tenebrae was originally celebrated by the church on Good Friday, but many congregations include it in Maundy Thursday worship following communion. It is a candle lighting service in reverse. Candles are lit in the beginning with each one snuffed out as a part of the Passion Story is read. It is a way of connecting the Holy Week stories to the resurrection to help us understand the full meaning of Easter Sunday as we sing our Hallelujahs.

Hymn #630 Fairest Lord Jesus (verses 1 & 4)

Fairest Lord Jesus, ruler of all nature, O Thou of God to earth come down.

Thee will I cherish. Thee will I honor.

Thou my soul's glory, joy and crown.

Beautiful Savior, Ruler of the nations, Son of God and Son of Man! Glory and honor, praise, adoration, now and forevermore be thine!
