A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

JANUARY 2026

Dear Valley family,

As we prepare to welcome our new pastor and head of staff, Rev. Kyle Sandison to Valley on February 2, I find myself filled with deep gratitude for all of you and for the ways God has sustained this congregation in every season. Over these past two years, you have shown faithfulness, resilience, and care for one another. You have continued to worship, to serve, to pray, to ask good questions, and to trust that God was still at work among us. It has been a privilege to walk alongside you during this time of transition.

Any new beginning holds a mixture of emotions. Some of us feel excitement and anticipation. Some of us carry grief for what has changed. Some of us feel both at once. All of that is welcome here. The good news of the gospel is that God meets us exactly where we are and leads us forward together. We do not step into this new chapter alone—Christ goes before us, beside us, and behind us.

God has been here throughout this season of waiting—at bedsides and fellowship tables, in meetings and mission projects, in laughter and tears. Pastor Kyle joins the vibrant ministry God is already doing through us here at Valley. A new season gives us the gift of fresh energy, renewed imagination, and the opportunity to listen together for what the Spirit is calling us to be next.

Pastor Sheila Sheldon

In the weeks ahead, I invite you to practice three simple things: hospitality, patience, and prayer. Offer a warm welcome. Learn names and share your stories. Be patient with one another as we discover new rhythms. And hold our new pastor, our staff, and our whole church guided by wisdom, humility, and joy. May this be a time of grace and blessing to all of us as the body of Christ.

I also want to say thank you. Thank you for the trust you have extended to me, for your encouragement, and for your commitment to the life of this church. Serving as your lay pastor during this time has been a blessing I will carry with me.

As we turn the page to this next chapter together, may we move forward with hopeful hearts, grounded in the promise that nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. I am grateful for what has been, and I am hopeful for what God will yet do in and through this congregation.

In Christ.

Si,
Sheila

VCPC LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT STATEMENT

As a faith congregation opening hearts, opening minds, and opening lives to God, Valley Community Presbyterian Church (VCPC) seeks to honor the important stories and lived experiences of its members and neighbors.

VCPC sits on the ancestral and contemporary land of the Dakota people, for whom the land holds historical, spiritual, political, and cultural significance.

We acknowledge the ongoing injustices that we have committed against the Dakota people and pledge to interrupt this legacy. We will educate ourselves about Indigenous history and recognize, support, and advocate for our Native neighbors.
