A LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

FEBRUARY 2026

Dear Valley Church,
Grace and peace to you. I thoroughly enjoyed meeting so many of you in December. Thank you for welcoming my family and me so warmly; we already feel very much at home here. I'm looking forward to getting to know each of you, hearing your stories, and walking through this life of faith together as we follow Jesus and love our neighbors.

Rev. Kyle Sandison

It's been a trying few months here in Minnesota. We've witnessed ICE agents antagonize our cities and communities. Our neighbors and friends are fearful of leaving their homes. They're going without groceries, missing doctor appointments, and wondering if they can send their children to school. We've seen the cruelty of ICE actions that are meant to intimidate and cause fear rather than uphold any law.

What does the gospel call us to in this moment? What does it mean to be the church now?

We're about to enter the season of Lent. Beginning with Ash Wednesday, Lent is a season in which we acknowledge our mortality, our frailty, and the way that sin—both individual and collective—contributes to a world marred by injustice, division, violence, and oppression. Lent is a season for honesty about these difficult truths.

Lent is a season in which we journey toward the cross and the empty tomb. Lent leads us to the moment when Christ gave himself to be killed at the hands of an oppressive regime, and rose again in victory over all the powers of sin, oppression, and death. As followers of Jesus, we bear this good news and witness to it with our lives.

In this moment, we desperately need to hear this good news and become people who proclaim it with our lives. The good news of God's emphatic love displayed on the cross compels us outward to love our neighbors, care for the vulnerable, lift up the poor, and stand with the marginalized.

And so we're beginning a sermon series called "Tell Me Something Good." This series will explore key moments from Jesus' life and ministry and discover how each is good news for our lives today. We'll reflect deeply on this good news, and we'll ask: How can we embody this love in our world today?

I recognize that in coming to Valley, I'm stepping into a 75-year tradition of doing exactly that. Your commitment to serve your neighbors, uphold the downtrodden, heal divisions, welcome the stranger, and care for the vulnerable is already evident to me. I'm honored to join you in this tradition as we continue discovering together what it means to be people of good news in a challenging time.

In Christ,

A Community Prayer Vigil for Peace was held on January 24, 2026. People came forward to light a candle for peace in our community.

WEDNESDAYS IN LENT 2026

Wednesdays in Lent this year will be a time to come together in fellowship, get to know Pastor Kyle, and reflect on our faith both individually and as a community. Dinner will be hosted by Church Committees from 6:00-6:45pm. After dinner, we'll move into a more worshipful moment together. There will be music, scripture, prayers, and time to share and have conversation together. As we sink into Jesus' teachings throughout the season, we may not always be comfortable, but we can trust that these teachings are good, rooted in love, and worthy of celebration.

Members are encouraged to bring sides and desserts!

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25

DINNER: 6:00 PM | PROGRAM: 6:45 PM

HOSTS: Technology/Finance/Stewardship

MEAL: Sloppy Joes

FOCUS TEXT: John 2:1-11, Matthew 13:31-32

The good news is....so good it catches us by surprise.

Like a mustard seed, the good news can grow from the smallest seed into the tallest tree. Like an unruly weed, or fine wine saved for last, the good news is abundant and cannot be contained.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11

DINNER: 6:00 PM | PROGRAM: 6:45 PM

HOST: Worship/Mission

MEAL: Soup & Chili

FOCUS TEXT: Mark 6:32-44, Ephesians 3:20-21

The good news is....together, the impossible is possible.

Jesus models a way to be in community by coming together and sharing what we have, dispelling perceived impossibilities. The good news empowers us to believe in the miracles that can become possible through the power of the community.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4

DINNER: 6:00 PM | PROGRAM: 6:45 PM

HOSTS: Educational Ministries

MEAL: Pasta & bread

FOCUS TEXT: Luke 7:36-50, Matthew 25:35-40

The good news is....great love for God & neighbor.

When we care for the hungry, the naked, the imprisoned—each of whom are created in the image of God—we are showing love for God, too.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18

DINNER: 6:00 PM | PROGRAM: 6:45 PM

HOSTS: Personnel/Growth/Properties

MEAL: Pizza

FOCUS TEXT: Matthew 19:13-15, Deuteronomy 24:17-22

The good news is....protection & care for the vulnerable.

Jesus' uplifting children is a reminder that we were all once children and have all been vulnerable at some point in our lives. If we're truly living out the good news, then anyone vulnerable will not only be protected from harm but cared for so they have the chance to thrive.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 25

DINNER: 6:00 PM | PROGRAM: 6:45 PM

HOSTS: Fellowship

MEAL: Hotdish Night

FOCUS TEXT: John 8:2-11, Matthew 23:23

The good news is....rooted in justice, mercy, & faithfulness.

Much of Jesus' teachings were grounded in his understanding of the Torah; however, many of his actions called for reinterpreting the law. As we wrestle with our own rules, we should ask, "What is the most just, merciful, and faithful interpretation?"

Land Acknowledgement Task Force

In January, the Indigenous Justice Task Force met for its 2026 kickoff. Returning members include Jennifer Biggs, Crystal Boyd, Pat Daily, Audrey Gabe, Mariah Messer, Roger Michael, and Janet Triplett. Please ask us about the Task Force!

In 2026, the Task Force hopes to engage members of the congregation in understanding and reconciling the historic harms that have impacted Dakota people and other Indigenous communities.

The Task Force is interested in hearing your ideas for how to engage Valley members. For example, what questions do you have about the Task Force's work? What types of events would you like to attend? Please send questions or suggestions to Crystal Boyd at crystalboydconsulting@gmail.com.

Recent Highlights:

- On January 7, co-hosted a photography presentation titled "Celebrating Ĥaĥá Wakpádan / Bassett Creek Through Indigenous Photography" with the Golden Valley Historical Society and other partners. Photographer Cassandra Roy (Anishinaabe) spoke about her winter photographs of the creek and other artistic projects. In fall 2026, Cassandra will present photos of the creek from all 4 seasons during Adult Education (date tbd).
- On January 11, hosted a "What to Expect" session for the award-winning documentary Sugar cane. The documentary investigates abuse and missing children at a Catholic boarding school in Canada. Julian Brave Noisecat (Canim Lake Band Tsq'secen of the Secwepemc Nation) and Emily Kassie directed the film. Special thanks to Jim Rock (Dakota) for sharing his family's stories with the 25 event participants.
- On January 18, hosted a film screening of the documentary Sugar cane. Valley promoted the event to the local presbytery and engaged 36 participants. This is part of the film's international Faith Community Screening Tour.

Looking ahead, please mark your calendars for these upcoming events:

- Sunday February 8 at 11:00am - Please join us for a follow-up discussion of the documentary Sugar cane at Valley. If you haven't seen the film yet, it's available on Disney+ and Hulu. A 2-minute trailer is available on YouTube. If you'd like to receive a reflection guide before the discussion, please email Crystal Boyd at crystalboydconsulting@gmail.com.
- Saturday October 17, 2026 - Ĥaĥá Wakpádan 1-Loop Fun Run. The Loppet Foundation has already opened registration here.

The Task Force is busy planning more educational events for 2026.
Please check back next month to learn more!

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT STATEMENT

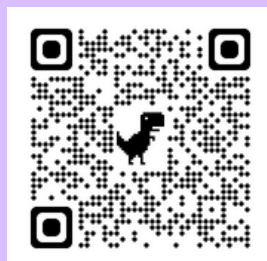

As a faith congregation opening hearts, opening minds, and opening lives to God, Valley Community Presbyterian Church (VCPC) seeks to honor the important stories and lived experiences of its members and neighbors.

VCPC sits on the ancestral and contemporary land of the Dakota people, for whom the land holds historical, spiritual, political, and cultural significance.

We acknowledge the ongoing injustices that we have committed against the Dakota people and pledge to interrupt this legacy. We will educate ourselves about Indigenous history and recognize, support, and advocate for our Native neighbors.
